IT'S UP TO US TO SAVE BRITAIN

“ The BNP's radical new approach is a sincere and genuine belief in the British people. Once the people recognise a British government which has every confidence in them, they'll begin to believe in themselves once again. The BNP has the moral integrity to put British people first in Britain every time. ”

“Time for action”

It's the politicians to blame – no one else. Their disastrous Immigration policy has brought hostile cultures into Britain, divided our once homogeneous communities, and forced the British people on a path to becoming a minority in our own homeland.

To add insult to injury, anyone who dares speak out against their destructive agenda is attacked, slandered and prosecuted.

The British National Party is leading the fight back and speaking out in the interests of the British people, that's why the Establishment political parties, the controlled media and political police chiefs fear the BNP.

From Stonehenge to the Industrial Revolution, British people have led the World. We have every reason to be proud of what we've achieved, and it's the reason why so many want to come to Britain to benefit from what we, and our ancestors have built

They also fear the BNP because, unlike the other political parties, the BNP cannot be bought. We're not indebted to multi-millionaire investors with their own selfish interests, nor are we dictated to by union bosses. The BNP is funded entirely by the generosity of the British people. That's the reason why the BNP is universally recognised as Britain's only genuine anti-Establishment political party, able to speak the truth and answer ONLY to the British people.

Like you, we're ordinary men and women with the courage to stand up and fight to make Britain Great again.

Keeping London British

London's full! Our public services are pushed to their limit, Islamisation is a serious threat to our public safety and London is fast losing its British identity.

ALL the other political parties want more Immigration. ONLY the British National Party can be trusted to STOP Immigration. That's why you need your BNP voice on the Greater London Authority (GLA).

This May, David Furness is the BNP candidate for London Mayor and #1 on the GLA list, which is why we're asking you to vote BNP and elect a real London voice to speak out for you.

DEFUSING THE ISLAMIST TIMEBOMB

They hate us and the they hate our culture, so why are they here?

Everybody knows the problems associated with radical Islam but the BNP is the ONLY political party with the courage to deal with the problem.

The hard fact is that the old political parties have allowed a fifth column of Islamist jihadis into our country.

These people not only hate our culture and everything we stand for, but they want Britain to be an Islamic State and for us to submit to their foreign rule and barbaric ideology – or face death. In short, this is a deadly invasion of Britain – an Islamist timebomb which is literally set to blow up in our face.

The BNP is entirely opposed to the Labour/Conservative regimes' Immigration policy which, if left unchecked, will see Britain and most of Europe dominated by Islam within a few decades.

The BNP recognises that Islam, by its very nature, is incompatible with modern Western democracy.

Rooting out Islamic extremists and Islamist Hate Preachers, expelling them from Britain and shutting down extremist mosques is a vital step towards protecting British citizens in our homeland.

N to their Islamist mayor

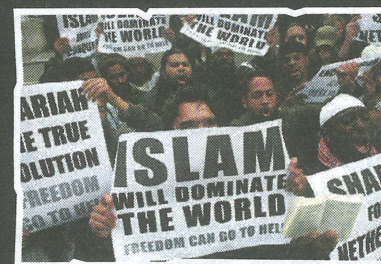

Muslim fanatic flies Islamist flag during a rally in January 2016 by Labour's Mayoral candidate Sadiq Kahn

The Labour Party is planning to put control of London in the hands of Islamists.

Labour's London Mayoral Candidate, Sadiq Kahn, was exposed by The Sun for being an extremist linked to an Islamist group that "wants to turn Britain into an Islamic state under Sharia law."

Our precious and unique British culture is actively and stealthily being erased and replaced with Islam, and the treacherous Labour Party is actively conspiring with them.

That's why it's vital that you vote BNP.

They want their Muslim Mayor – are you going to give it to them?

IMMIGRATION

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH

THE POLITICIANS' IMMIGRATION SYSTEM IS A SHAMBLES

THAT'S WHY THE BNP IS DEMANDING A BAN ON ALL IMMIGRATION WHILE THE PROBLEM IS RESOLVED

We've all been told that Britain would fail without Immigration. It's a lie. Great Britain was built by the British people and would continue to thrive without Immigration.

Bogus asylum seekers, sham marriages, 'refugee' crises, endless streams of EU immigrants, and full Third World extended families have flooded Soft-Touch Britain to become fully dependent on our over burdened welfare system for their every need. It's a disaster! With British people already a minority in some of our cities, the situation is so desperate that even rabid pro-Immigration advocates have declared their own Multicultural experiment a failure.

The British people have never had a chance to vote on Immigration – yet it's the biggest political issue of our day.

To add insult to injury, their slanderous claims that our people are lazy and incapable are outrageous. Our people ARE good enough! The BNP has the total confidence that given the right training, opportunities and a government which encourages them, our British workers and our children would gain the skills needed to fill all the labour gaps in the market and be among the best and brightest in the World.

The BNP proposes a 'radical' new approach – we will put the interests of the British people first EVERY TIME.

- Close the borders and stop all Immigration until we can sort out the mess
- Leave the European Union (EU) and take back control of our borders
- Deport bogus asylum seekers and foreign criminals immediately

Immigration is drastically changing demographics in Britain, making the British people a minority in many of our cities, as well as bringing a dangerous, aggressive and hateful ideology into our country – Islam.

The problem is so bad, that the cowardly politicians' only answer is to appease the Islamists instead of defending our British identity.

"I want an Asian Prime Minister of Britain"

David Cameron

"It is mainstream Britain which needs to integrate more with the Muslim way of life, not the other way round"

NO MORE MOSQUES

- Refuse permission for more mosques and minarets – which are little more than symbols of territorial conquest
 - Reclaim extremist mosques – shut them down or negotiate with ‘moderate’ Muslim groups for rehabilitation
 - Refuse permission for existing community buildings to be converted into mosques – churches are to be protected as cultural sites and registered
- Read more on page 10

Islam is inherently intolerant, requiring Muslims to convert ‘non-believers’. The BNP champions the right for a person to practise their religion free of persecution, which is why the BNP vehemently opposes the colonisation by Islam of Britain. With more than 1,500 mosques currently in Britain, Islam poses a genuine threat to freedom of expression and faith.

Deobandi is the most widely taught strain of Islamic teaching in Britain. It controls almost half of the mosques and every Islamic training centre for learning. To call Deobandi ‘extreme’ is an understatement. It’s the Islam adhered to by the Taliban.

Before attacking the Taliban in Afghanistan following 9/11, Tony Blair stated: ‘I don’t believe, that anybody seriously wants to live under that kind of regime.’ Did he realise that the rules enforced

The BNP was right
The Sun newspaper

by law in Afghanistan were being adopted, voluntarily, in parts of Leicester, Dewsbury and Blackburn?

When we consider that the movement was, founded by extremist Muslims to fight non-believers and ruthlessly control their own people in response to British influence in India, is it any surprise that these people want to see Britain turned into an Islamic state.

The BNP is the ONLY political party which recognises the fact that these people do not want to be a part of British society and want to destroy it. That’s why the BNP will put a stop to the Islamic colonisation of Britain, starting by denying planning permission for any mosques on British soil and shutting down those run by extremists.

HATE PREACHERS OUT

Britain is harbouring some of the World’s most extreme Islamist clerics

We’ve all seen Islamist Hate Preachers burning our poppies on Remembrance Day and spitting on our brave troops as the return home to bury their comrades.

It’s one of the most vile displays of hatred, one that’s acceptable to the traitorous, coward David Cameron and the Islamist appeasers.

A BNP Government will take instant action to arrest and deport these evil and dangerous extremists. This is just part of the BNP policy of putting the interests and safety of the British people in Britain first EVERY TIME.

The BNP will arrest and deport Islamist Hate Preachers to prevent further Islamist radicalisation and protect British people

Politicians scheming for the Islamisation of Britain

Conservative member of Cameron’s cabinet, Sahid Warsi, has called for new mosques to be disguised as English churches.

This sinister deception is aimed at preventing native Brits from being alarmed at the rate of the Islamic takeover.

Warsi is just one of many Conservative and Labour politicians actively conspiring towards making Britain an Islamic state

The stats say it all

45% of Muslims in Britain agree that clerics preaching violence against the West represent “mainstream Islam.”

BBC Radio (2015)

1.5 Million Muslims in Britain support the Islamic State, about half their total population.

BNP – Protecting our children

PROTECT CHILDREN
fight grooming gangs

The BNP is the ONLY political party which fought for the victims of Muslim rape gangs when senior police and the politicians not only ignored and covered up the horrific crimes, but tried to silence the BNP

The 2014 independent inquiry into paedophile Muslim rape gangs shook the Establishment and brought international condemnation of governing authorities in Britain.

It confirmed what the BNP had said for more than a decade; gangs of Muslim men of 'Pakistani origin' were preying on vulnerable young white girls, torturing them, forcing them to take drugs and repeatedly gang raping them.

The report exposed a massive cover up by politicians and political police chiefs to conceal the horrific crimes and turn a blind eye to the Labour Party's 'kids for votes' scandal which would assure them the Muslim bloc vote.

For more than a decade ONLY the BNP worked to help the victims of this atrocity.

Having been betrayed by the politicians and police, victims turned to the only organisation they could trust – the BNP.

"Thank God the BNP were there to help us. It's down to them this evil was exposed," stated one victim's mother.

The BNP was right
The Sun newspaper
27/09/2012

Labour Party – the face of racism and betrayal: Following the BNP-led inquiry, the Labour council of Rotherham was put into 'special measures' for conspiring with South Yorkshire Police to cover-up the torture and gang rape of more than 1,400 vulnerable young British girls by Muslim rape gangs

The BNP will protect British people by:

- Categorising the crimes of Muslim rape gangs under religious and race hate laws, since these gangs only prey on non-Muslim, white children
- Jailing the police and council officials who covered up the horrific abuse

Prosecute police who fail the people

Labour's police chief Shaun Wright was forced to resign over the horrific scandal

South Yorkshire Police not only failed to protect young British girls from the predatory paedophile Muslim rape gangs, but were implicated in the report for actively covering up the horrific crimes.

It's not enough for these corrupt officials to resign, only to be re-posted in another well paid position and paid off at the expense of the taxpayer.

The BNP will make them accountable, launch a full investigation into police and council corruption, and jail those found guilty.

Did you know?

It was the late BNP super activist Marlene Guest whose tireless work with victims resulted in her compiling over a decades' worth of damning evidence against Muslim rape gangs. Marlene brought about the Rotherham independent inquiry (Jay Report 2014) which resulted in international condemnation of the horrific crimes. Marlene forced the resignation of the Labour Party's Police Commissioner Shaun Wright. "Children in Rotherham are safer because of the work and bravery of Marlene Guest," reported the Rotherham Advertiser.

Indoctrinating our children must stop

British children are being forced to submit to Islam by 'politically correct' teaching authorities

Across the country politically correct school teachers are forcing young British children to dress in traditional Islamic clothing and visit mosques to prey to Allah.

While their own culture and religion is being suppressed, children are being taught the 'benefits' and 'superiority' of Islam.

"They're trying to brain-wash our kids," stated one parent who contacted the BNP in confidence.

"At my kid's school they banned the Halloween party and the kids' nativity play, while forcing them to Head teacher Cath Precious with Imam Abid Salik and some of the children with their school designs.

Disgusting! Primary school children are led to a mosque, forced to wear Islamic dress and photographed by their teacher for publicity celebrate Ramadan and Eid. It's outrageous!"

A 2014 study revealed that native British primary school children were under performing, disillusioned and depressed because they were "turned off by lessons on other cultures" and denied the freedom to choose to study their own culture and religion.

Banning the burqa and hijab

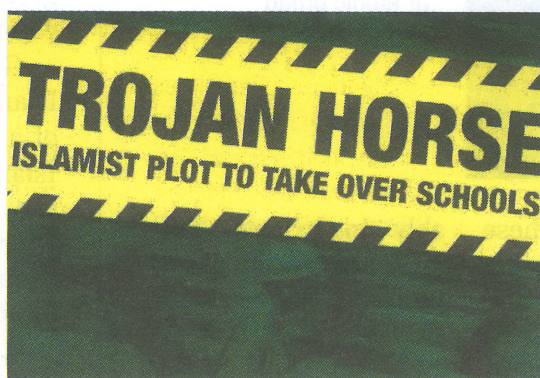

The burqa and the hijab are threatening and offensive and have no place in our free British society.

Not only is the burqa a security threat by concealing the identity of the wearer – which has already been used in Britain by Islamists to evade police – it is also a symbol of the refusal to integrate with British society.

The BNP will 'Ban the Burqa', a move which is supported by 75% of the British people and which the government has so far refused to do.

Making schools safe for children

A 2014 investigation into the alleged 'Trojan Horse' Islamist takeover of classrooms and schools revealed that students in several schools were being radicalised by Islamic extremists.

The investigation, focusing first on several schools in Birmingham, found that the conspiracy extended to schools across the country.

The BNP will protect our children from radicalisation in schools and ensure closer monitoring of teaching practises.

Turning the tide on 'refugee' flood

The recent escalation of the so-called Syrian 'refugee' crisis has seen millions of Muslims from North Africa and the Middle East flood Europe bringing with them thousands of battle-hardened Islamist jihadis.

The horrific sex attacks in Cologne and other cities across Europe by organised gangs of Muslim 'refugees' and the terrorist mass murders in Paris are just the beginning. That's why it's vital that you vote BNP at every opportunity.

ONE LAW – BRITISH LAW

Towering example: British justice is a shining example for all

Britain is the oldest modern democracy. The British parliament, established in 1707, is the model for all other democratic states today.

The politicians' disastrous Immigration policy has resulted in the colonisation of large Muslim communities. They live outside of British law and have introduced a whole religiously-based law system, including their own Sharia law courts – blatantly flouting British Law.

The politicians are allowing this to happen, which is a very dangerous precedent.

British Law is the law of the land. In the interests of fairness and the equal application of the law, the BNP will ban Sharia and uphold British Law for all.

- Always put the rights of victims first and restore capital punishment as a sentencing option for judges
- Leave the EU – and restore law-making to the British Parliament
- Ban Sharia courts in Britain
- Protect our traditional laws within Britain
- Cancel the passports and revoke the citizenship of those who travel abroad to provide aid and comfort to terror groups
- Ban the ritual slaughter of animals on religious grounds, including halal and kosher

Criminally minded?

Startling: The fact is that a Muslim is three times more likely to commit a crime than any other religious or ethnic group in the country

Despite being less than 5% of the population, Muslims make up 15% of the prison population in England and Wales.

Islamist gangs are running many prisons, according to a BBC report. In high security prisons, Muslim percentages are well above average.

In 2015, The Daily Mail revealed that for the first time ever in Britain, a high security jail contained more than 50% Muslim convicts.

Furthermore, these convicts were forcing others to convert and submit to Islam, so much so, that a report declared staff and other inmates “found the Muslim presence overwhelming.”

No one from the Muslim community, or from the Establishment has addressed this disproportionate level of Muslim criminality.

An Establishment group tried to fix the problem with a predictably inadequate ‘faith awareness training’ programme. Having failed, they reported that the “religious gulf within the jail had been underestimated.”

Muslims now form the biggest power bloc in Britain’s prisons.

Naturally, it takes the BNP to point out the facts: Many Muslims refuse to adhere to British Law, choosing instead, to live by the same extreme Islamic laws as the Taliban.

Conflict of interests

With more than 1 in 4 Muslim UK citizens putting Islam before their allegiance to Britain, it’s clear where their priorities lie.

In 2015, it was estimated that more than 1,500 Islamists had travelled from Britain to fight for the so-called Islamic State (ISIS) terror group, with reports claiming that many of its commanders spoke with ‘British accents’.

Gender equality is also under threat, since in Islam, women and children remain the property of a man, and homosexuality is a capital offense. Islamisation is a dilemma for LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender) pressure groups whose traditionally hard-line liberal approach and championing of minorities is being aggressively opposed by Islamist intolerance and bigotry.

It seems the do-gooders have bitten off more than they can chew this time around, and they’re making it even worse by trying to hide the fact. They’re like turkeys voting for Christmas!

Muslims are ‘not like us’ and the government must accept that they will never integrate

ANIMALS DESERVE BETTER

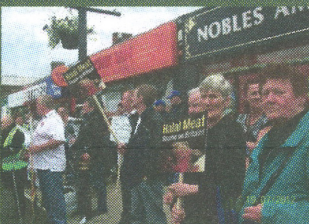

British law says that animals slaughtered for food must be either electrically stunned (in the case of pigs) or killed instantly by a bolt action gun in the case of other animals. This process is instant, painless and humane.

It is wrong on every level that Labour and Conservative governments allow the horrific practice of ritual slaughter. Religion cannot justify the unnecessary suffering of animals.

The British people are rightly proud of taking animal welfare to our hearts. Bringing an end to the ritual slaughter of animals is the right thing to do.

Denmark has already implemented the ban, the BNP will do the same in Britain.

This barbaric practice highlights the need for one set of laws governing everyone equally. A core BNP policy is that there can be no exception from British law on religious grounds, because it's fair and right.

BRINGING OUR TROOPS HOME

The BNP says British troops should not be sent to fight and die in wars that have nothing to do with Britain

SUPPORT THE BNP

The BNP firmly believes in a policy of armed neutrality and strongly condemns the abuse of our Armed Forces by warmongering politicians who have sent British troops to fight and die in foreign conflicts that have nothing to do with Britain. Under a BNP Government, British Armed Forces will exist only to defend the direct interests of Britain.

The vast sums of money saved by refusing to be drawn into foreign conflicts will be spent on improving facilities here at home instead of destroying those of other nations.

- Rebuild British Armed Forces to be independent and self-reliant
- Withdraw our troops from all foreign conflicts which do not directly threaten British interests
- Refrain from interfering in the internal affairs of Islamic nations
- Make it a serious criminal offense to abuse or threaten service personnel in British military uniform
- Negotiate peace treaties with Muslim governments, including the agreed repatriation of those who wish to return to their land of origin

BNP stop war with Syria

BNP activists meet with the Speaker of the Syrian Parliament and successfully reopen diplomatic talks between Britain and the Syrian Government in 2013

The BNP actively campaigns to keep Britain out of foreign wars – and we get results!

August 2013: Two days before a crucial Westminster vote on whether or not to bomb Syrian Government forces to assist the 'rebels' – now ISIS – the BNP was invited by the Syrian Government to reopen diplomatic ties with Britain.

Three BNP delegates embarked on the dangerous trip through Lebanon and war-torn Syria to meet high-ranking government officials in the Syrian Parliament in Damascus.

There, BNP delegates wrote an official letter on behalf of the Syrian Government to British MPs just hours before the crucial vote. The letter succeeded in narrowly swaying the vote against war.

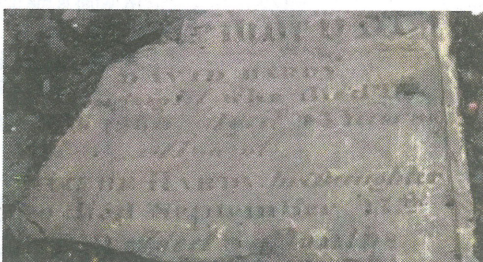

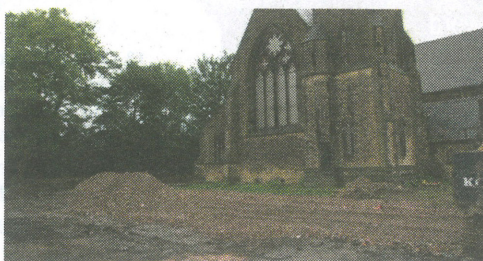

The BNP delegation also persuaded the Syrian Government to give up their stock piles of chemical weapons.

Preserving our British heritage

Across Britain, Labour, Conservative and LibDem councils are handing churches and pubs over to Muslim groups to convert into mosques.

We can't blame Muslims for wanting our community buildings, we DO blame the politicians who betray the British people by handing them over.

The BNP recognises that churches and pubs are important symbols of our precious and unique British culture and identity, as well as being our community centres. That's why the BNP successfully help local community groups campaign to stop mosque applications. The BNP will continue to fight against the destruction and desecration of our culture and heritage.

Our culture and heritage is our strength

For the politicians, immigration is simply a question of economic figures and quotas. The BNP thinks differently. We recognise that the well-being of a nation requires a firm sense of shared identity, a common ancestry, which brings with it a natural respect for fellow countrymen and binds a community. Immigration tears the very fabric of this community and destroys our collective sense of self. Our blood ties, ancient heritage, rich culture and noble sense of fair play went into building a country envied the World over. We, the British people, did it by ourselves! There's nothing to gain from Immigration – there's everything to lose! That's why the BNP will stop the Islamification of Britain and halt and reverse the politicians' disastrous immigration agenda.

More and more British Heroes are fighting on even after they've gone by leaving a gift to the BNP in their wills

On a recent trip to the South West on Party business, BNP Chairman Adam Walker and National Treasurer Clive Jefferson took time out of their busy schedule to tend the grave of lifetime BNP member and Parliamentary candidate, James Connolly.

James was a London railwayman who was horrified at the devastation of his city and country by Immigration. Like many others, James understood that only the BNP has the integrity and courage to restore his beloved country. When he died in 2012, he left his entire estate to the BNP, safe in the knowledge that we would continue our fight in his name.

James joins our growing Roll of Honour of British patriots who will never be forgotten.
